NESBA Competition Information:

BAND CLASSIFICATION

Bands will be classified by the Executive Board, namely the Fall and winter activities directors.

On a specified date in early September, all Bands must submit to the NESBA President a total of the number of members in the Band.

Divisions will be determined by the number of total members in each Band, including drum majors, guard and percussion sections.

AWARDS AND PRIZES

Medal Awards

Each band in competition will receive a Medal Award which will be Platinum, Gold, Silver or Bronze and will be determined by score as follows:

- Platinum Medal -- Total Score 95.00 and above
- Gold Medal -- Total Score 85.00 - 94.99
- Silver Medal -- Total Score 75.00 - 84.99
- Bronze Medal -- Total Score 45.00 - 74.99

Best Awards

There will be Best Awards announced in each Division as follows:

- High Auxiliary -- Selected By Visual Judges
- High Music Score -- Selected by Music Performance and Ensemble Judges
- High Percussion Score -- Selected by all Music Judges

The Best Awards will be presented before the scores and announced in each Division. Their tabulation is discussed in the Judging system of this manual.

Visit NESBA.org for more information.
